San Francisco Connection? DCJ

The June 1981 issue of National Geographic featured an article on San Francisco Bay - Its Beauty and Battles - an account of the importance of that great body of water to the cities on its shore and how great changes have been made over the years by filling the bay to make land - a practice now being fought to save the marsh and wildlife. Another facet of this story has reached us through the interest of the family of Mrs. Ed McQuillan, nee Mary Palmer, who grew up in San Francisco and who sent an interesting article from the San Francisco December 7, 1980 Examiner and Chronicle. This article is about the recent finds of various ships discovered under the streets of San Francisco as digging for a sewer line uncovered the hulks. Historians, notably Roger Olmsted, have researched the ships to identify them.

According to the story by Judith Robinson, one of these ships discovered at the foot of King Street by Pier 42 is believed to be the whaler Lydia. Evidence removed under archeologist's guidance strongly suggests that this vessel may be the "Lydia" that was sister ship to the "Charles W. Morgan" and which was built in Mattapoisett's Joseph Meigs and Son yard in 1840. She was 351 tons originally ship rigged and later altered to a bar rig. Henry Kattle, of Point Connett, knowledgeable about whaling, lists the Lydia's voyages as follows:

Nantucket (1840-1845) - 1 whaling voyage
Fairhaven (1845-1864) - 5 whaling voyages
New London (1864-1865)-1 whaling voyage
New Bedford (1865-1885)-6 whaling voyages
San Francisco (1885-1897)-9 whaling voyages

Mrs. Barbara Collins of the New Bedford Old Dartmouth Historical Society (Whaling Museum) on Johnny Cake Hill in New Bedford tried to find us a photo of the Lydia but the early dates of her New Bedford area voyages apparently were before much photography at this port. No photos are in the museum archives. Mr. Philip Purrington of the Museum urged caution of the account of the Lydia finding. He furnished the information that the last recorded voyage was to the Arctic in the 1890's and said that if the fill were before that period then it could not be the whaler named "Lydia". According to the San Francisco Examiner story, the fill was made in 1907, therefore Reportedly she was alongside of Wharf 3 at Howard Street, San Francisco to be dismasted when news of her ceased.

The story quotes historian Olmsted as saying that there is evidence that she was being outfitted for sea. He asks the question, "Why is her bow twenty feet higher than her stern?" Olmsted's theory is that the ship caught fire and was beached to save her from sinking as happened to the Steamer St. Helena in the same time frame. Olmsted checked many old records and had almost given up hope of identification of the vessel until his team, after searching San Francisco Examiner files from 1901 to 1906, later found reference to the Lydia in the Coast Seaman's Journal of 1907 in the California State Library.

According to the account Olmsted would like to see the stern of what he is convinced is the Lydia excavated and added to the whaling museum at Aquatic Park. Ultimately he is quoted as envisioning a full scale replica of this whaler Lydia.

Should this happen then it is very possible that consultation would be both at Mystic Seaport and at the Old Dartmouth Historical Society in New Bedford where the 1/2 scale model of the Lagoda was built in 1905 by shipbuilders who built many a working whaler. Mrs. Collins said that this model is consulted frequently when repairers of the Morgan want to see how the shipwrights did their original work. The Lagoda is fully enclosed in the museum and protected from the ravages of weather and rot which obscure some details of work on the Morgan.

We thank Daniel McQuillan for the account of this story (which we have held until our summer readers' arrival), Henry Kattel for the research on the Lydia's voyages, Mrs. Barbara Collins for allowing the photos of the Lagoda. We suggest our readers, both summer and year round, visit or revisit the Old Dartmouth Historical (Whaling Museum) on Johnny Cake Hill to see the finest collection of whaling items under one roof in the world. It is unique.

Selectmen's Meeting

MOORING WORK INQUIRY

Attorney John Collins appearing for Conrad Roy of Mattapoisett Neck asked Selectmen why Mr. Roy had been prevented by Harbormaster Lloyd Haskell from working on his moorings. He said that the stoppage was expensive for Mr. Roy who had hired equipment for the purpose. The attorney asked the origin of the complaint. According to the harbormaster, a call was received by a Mrs. Reed who said that Roy was placing moorings for the Mansfields. "What was wrong with that?" asked Collins. "He should have asked the harbormaster for permission" was the answer. Collins replied that Conrad Roy was actually working on his own moorings and was in the process of replacing them so they would not be in the radius of Mrs. John Reed's mooring.

Selectman James Huntoon apologized for the inconvenience. He said this area of the harbor was sensitive because of litigation and Harbormaster Haskell had reacted accordingly. He said that it was apparent that the reaction was not based on credible information. Chairman William Hubbard said that the Harbor Committee is presently at work on a plot of each mooring in the harbor and when complete each mooring would be numbered on the mast and set in a location provided to prevent such confusion. Harbormaster Haskell said that, in the meantime, he would like the telephone numbers together with the names of each boat and owner and location of the mooring so that he can notify the owner in case of an emergency.

RIVER VALLEY STUDY WELCOMED

Virginia deLivia, hydrologist with the U.S. Department of the Interior, Geologicial Survey, told Selectmen that a study is needed by that agency to update a Mattapoisett Water Valley study that is 20 years old. To do this, they will establish a series of observation wells. She said they will establish the direction of the water flow, the quality, type of soil, depth of sand and gravel, how much flow and how fast the fluctuation. The drill rig will be on the back of a pick-up truck and many locations will be on private land for which permission is now being sought from owners.

The Selectmen assured her that the project had their full and enthusiastic support for the work which will be of great benefit to the town. They assured her that the Selectmen's office will do anything to assist in the test well work.

SUMMER PTC ASSIGNMENT

This summer Center School is entering another Campbell Soup Contest. It is called Labels for Education Auction. Center School must collect 4,000 Campbell's Beans and Franco-American labels (front portion only). Prior to October 2, 1981 we will collect all the labels saved by the students, parents and friends over the summer and submit them. If you would like to drop them off during the summer, there will be a drop box at Seaport and Mattapoisett Pharmacies. We do need educational materials for our school, so please take a few minutes and help us out.

Marion Horse Show

4th OF JULY

Plans are being completed for the 35th Annual Marion Horse Show to be held July 4th at the Washburn Memorial Park located just off Route 105 in Marion. According to Mr. LaVerne Wallace, President of the Marion Horse Show Committee, this year's show should prove to be one of the most popular and certainly the outstanding attraction in this area. Beginning at 9 a.m. and continuing until late afternoon, there will be over 57 equestrian events in two rings and attracting participants from all over New England.

As part of the Horse Show a Midway will be featured with games of skill and chance, rides for the children and the ever popular punch board with its many prizes. In addition there will be food booths operated by the Old Rochester Regional High School classes and offering such goodies as hamburgs, hot dogs, corn on the cob, coffee and cold drinks. Raffle tickets will be available for a grand prize of $300.00 plus over 25 valuable prizes donated by local merchants and businesses.

Everyone is invited, both young and old, for what has proven to be the most interesting and exciting day for the whole family.

Retired Persons

The Greater Fairhaven Chapter #3122 will meet June 19 at 1:30 p.m. at Green Meadows, McGann Terrace, Fairhaven.

Mrs. Louise A. Freeman of the Bristol County Extension Service will be our speaker on "What to Eat Instead of Meat".

The election and installation of officers will follow our guest speaker.

Come and bring a friend for this last meeting of the season. Refreshments and a social hour will follow.

All new and carry-over Directors will hold a brief meeting at the conclusion of the afternoon.

Ned's Point

AN EXCEPTIONAL VIEW Editorial, DCJ

There are exceptions to every rule. One which has bothered many is that which excepts Mattapoisett's parks from the town's by-law which forbids public drinking. To set aside a place such as Ned's Point Veterans' Park, reached almost entirely by automobile, for a spot to consume alcohol and know that all departure will be by automobile is to set the conditions for miscalculation by an impaired driver. Many would consider that this makes everyone in Mattapoisett an accessory before the fact in any departure from the party place resulting in risk to anyone.

Accessories can be victims also. But, only, if they don't speak out. Just as passengers can refuse to ride. Accessories can refuse to be part of a potential for disaster.

Veterans' Park is the perfect place to enjoy life. Let's return it to that purpose - with no exception.

Chicken Barbeque & Fair

A date to remember - Sunday, June 28th! On that day Saint Rose of Lima in Rochester will hold its annual Chicken Barbecue to which everyone is invited. This year's Chicken Barbecue will be particularly festive, because it will be the first held since Saint Rose of Lima became a parish last fall. The barbecue will have a whole new format - that of a Country Fair promising a day of fun for parishioners and visitors of all ages.

In addition to the always delicious, complete chicken dinner prepared by the men in the barbecue pit, there will be a Craft Fair, featuring craftspeople from many surrounding towns; a Flea Market; entertainment throughout the afternoon; games and a clown and painted faces for the children; and so much more.

A new and exciting feature this year will

Mr. Callan will display antique pieces of "Folk Art" and invites members to bring in pieces for discussion and appraisal.

Folk Art has been little appreciated until recently and it is our wish to increase our understanding and appreciation of these wonderful works of art done by untaught, amateur artisans.

The Museum on Church Street will be opening on July 7, hours are 2:00-4:00 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays. Memberships are always welcome. See ad Page 48.

The subject for the museum's special exhibit for July will be "Folk Art" and the show will be entitled "By Their Own Hands".

We invite you all, members and non-members alike, to display your pieces of inherited or acquired pieces of "American Folk Art"; old or recent. Please look around in those corners of your barns and attics for a long ago forgotten piece that may qualify. Perhaps we may discover that Mattapoisett had many unsung "folk" who "diddled" around with the arts and crafts of their day. Please call Mrs. Bradford A. Hathaway if you have questions, 758-3579.

Mr. Gregory Louden, 9 Oakland Terrace,

THANKSGIVING NOVENA TO ST. JUDE

Oh Holy St. Jude, Apostle and Martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ, faithful intercessor of all who invoke your special patronage in time of need, to you I have recourse from the depth of my heart and humbly beg to whom God has given such great power to come to my assistance. Help me in my present and urgent petition. In return, I promise to make your name known, and cause you to be involved. Say three Our Fathers, three Hail Marys and Glories for 9 consecutive days. Publication must be promised. St. Jude pray for us all who invoke your aid. Amen. This Novena has never been known to fail. I have had my request granted. Publication promised.

The first known purebred Arabian in America was the stallion Ranger, brought to Connecticut in 1765. A son of this horse was George Washington's mount in the Revolutionary War.

Mattapoisett, and Old Rochester Regional High School, has been competitively selected to attend an academic workshop at the United States Military Academy, West Point, N.Y. Mr. Louden was one of 300 high school students chosen from high schools throughout the United States to participate in a program of math and science at West Point. The program is designed to assist academically talented young men and women with future career choices in math, science and engineering. In addition to classroom and workshop instruction, the facilities of West Point will be available to all participants during their attendance from June 21-26, 1981.

Girls' Track Banquet

At the 1981 Spring Girls' Track Banquet, attended by more than 300 parents and friends, the 1981 season was highlighted by pictures, slides, and movies of the past season.

Guest speakers at the banquet were Principal David S. Hagen and Superintendent of Schools Joan Walsh who commented on the value of women's sports in future careers.

Coaches Rodrigues, Vaughan, and Goodfellow presented awards and commented on how all of the seniors are headed for college and will be competing at the college level.

The Club plans to hold meets every 2 weeks during the summer and anyone can come and participate.

The events will change every two weeks to cover most areas of track and field.

Anyone wishing to join the club or who would like information on the Mattapoisett Track Club should contact any of the coaches during one of their Monday or Wednesday evening practices at the Old Rochester Regional High School track.

Team members will travel to other away meets around the state which are also divided into age groups for competition.

The rain date for this track meet will be the next evening having good weather.

Parents, bring your children, old and young, to a track meet which is free and gives out awards to the first 3 finishers in each category and each event.

thirteen health areas studied during the school year. There were two students at each of the following booths: Child Abuse, Poisons, Stress, Blood Pressure, Diabetes, Fire, Smoking, Alcohol, Drugs, Teenage Pregnancy, Cancer, Good Grooming, Cardio-Pulmonary-Resuscitation.

The health fair was well received by students and faculty, and provided an opportunity for the rest of the school to see the activities in health services, the newest shop area in the school.

Instructors Beverly Pusateri and Janet Robinson supervised the students, and are very pleased with the effort the students put in.

Participating students were: Michelle Baker, Miriam Bernache, Judy Besse, Deborah Blaise, Katherine Bowman, Kim Buckles, Laurie Colun, Jerold Contois, Louanne Cunha, Michelle Lemieux, Roberta Murphy, Christine Oliver, Teresa Osborne, Elizabeth Ouellette, Lisa Pavea, Beth Anne Perkins, Suzette Plante, Michele Prives, Kerry Rand, Carolyn Richard, Diane Schneider, Rita Seguin, Beth Soares, Kim Strohman, Christine Tripp, Sandra Wright.

THANKSGIVING NOVENA TO ST. JUDE

Oh Holy St. Jude, Apostle and Martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ, faithful intercessor of all who invoke your special patronage in time of need, to you I have recourse from the depth of my heart and humbly beg to whom God has given such great power to come to my assistance. Help me in my present and urgent petition. In return, I promise to make your name known, and cause you to be involved. Say three Our Fathers, three Hail Marys and Glories for 9 consecutive days. Publication must be promised. St. Jude pray for us all who invoke your aid. Amen. This Novena has never been known to fail. I have had my request granted. Publication promised. A.L.

FLAG DAY CEREMONIES

A Flag Day program was held Friday, June 12th, at Center School when pupils, teachers, Principal Katherine Kozicki and guests gathered at the flagpole on the Barstow Street side of the school for ceremonies honoring our Flag. Selectman John DeCosta was the guest speaker. He said, in part, "You should love and honor your flag. There were many sacrifices made for it.

"It is the symbol of our country, the 'Flower of Liberty' to be revered and cher-

Solar Heat Research

Three students, Mike Duryea, Mark Hughes and Brian Rousseau, of Rochester Memorial School, recently researched solar heating systems. Here is their report:

The hypothesis we tried to answer was, "In five years a solar heating system will pay for itself."

We brainstormed a list of questions whose answers might support our hypothesis. Here are a few sample questions from our questionnaire:

1. How long have you had your solar system?
2. Do you think your solar system will pay for itself in five years?
3. How much money have you saved with your solar system?
4. Did you get any assistance from the government?

To help us contact people who use solar heating systems, we contacted Mr. Meyer. Mr. Meyer installs and sells solar systems. He gave us a list of people who owned solar systems and their telephone number.

Each of us telephoned five people and interviewed them. While we interviewed them we filled in our questionnaire.

The information we received from the phone calls, we put on a bar graph. Our graph showed how many people:

- felt their solar system would pay for itself. (all 15 said yes)
- received assistance from the government. (all 15 said yes)
- were glad they bought a solar system. (all 15 said yes)
- believed the older a system got, it would make the same amount of heat. (14 of 15 said yes)

Our conclusion is that if you were to purchase a solar heating system, it will pay for itself in five years.

SUMMER SCHEDULE - 1981

The Children's Museum's 1981 Summer Schedule of classes, programs, and special events is chock full of new ideas and old favorites that we hope will make your summer here on the coast of New England an outstanding one. Courses for children ages 3 and 4 are: "Fingers to Brushes", and "A Close Look at Nature". These involve "busy" projects, art mediums, and first-hand exploration of the natural world. For 5 and 6 year olds: "Little Adventures", "Art for 5 & 6", and "Seashore Creatures". These classes include forays into the study of different local animal habitats, exploration, discovery, and nature-related art projects. For 7 and 70 a wide variety of subjects is offered. "Ponds, Streams, Rivers, and Bogs", "Marsh and Seashore Life", "Reptiles and Amphibians", and "Butterflies and Moths". Each course involved beginners and advanced students in collecting, specimen study and habitat study. Also, for artistic endeavors: "Really Drawing" and "Creative Writing".

This year the Children's Museum is including a series of programs of specific interest to adults. Each program will be a one-day, 1 1/2 to 2 hour workshop given by members of the community who have distinguished themselves in their field. Programs will explore the sun, moon, and stars, local geology and rock collecting, stories of bird life, keeping a nature journal and recordings and reflections on the world of nature, the art of taking good slide photography, studying the lives of local mammals and more. For more information on the Adult Workshop Series please contact us.

Besides the Adult Workshop Series, an adult course entitled "Writing For, About, and With Your Pre-School Child" will be given at the Children's Museum. The course has been given at Bridgewater State College and Cambridge Center for Adult Ed. Teacher Mrs. Sally Spooner includes in her course an overview of literature for young children, review of story structure, writing for children and reasons and ways to stimulate your child's imagination and encourage him to dictate stories. She will also introduce Calligraphy and bookbinding. If you have ever had the urge to write a story for children, please join us July 16, 23, 30 and August 6. There is a cost for the course; all materials are provided.

Area children found fossil ferns implanted in coal deposits from the Coal Age of 250 million years ago. With hammer and chisel they were able to bring home their treasure as a reminder of their exciting day. The Children's Museum has scheduled another Fossil Hunt for Saturday, June 20th. We will be traveling to Portsmouth, Rhode Island. If you do not have your own transportation, please contact the Museum so that we may reserve a seat for you in our van. We will be leaving the Museum at 1:30 sharp! Registration in advance is required. Mr. Lee Vargas will be leading our Fossil Hunt. All who participate are asked to bring a stone chisel, hammer, protective eye wear, gloves and a knapsack. There is admission charged.

FIELD WALK - WILDFLOWERS

In June, Dartmouth vegetation explodes into a jungle of summer greens. Amidst the thick foliage a variety of other colors can be seen as well, yellows and whites, violets, blues, oranges, peach colors and shades of rose. Summer wildflowers interrupt the abundance of green in their attempt to attract bees, butterflies and birds. The Chil-

Persons interested may call the Plantation at 746-1622, voice or T.T.Y.

MAYFLOWER II

The Mayflower II docked in Plymouth Harbor is now open every day until 6:30 p.m. through Labor Day.

The extended time will accommodate the thousands of visitors who tour the ship each summer.

A new dockside exhibit to orient visitors to Mayflower II is slated to open in July. The exhibit will provide historical information on the Pilgrims and the voyage to Plymouth. It will also prepare visitors for the first person interpretation of the crew and passengers aboard ship who live in "1620".

Mayflower II came to Plymouth in 1957 when she became a permanent exhibit of Plimoth Plantation. Since that time, 7.5 million visitors have toured the replica of the famous vessel.

Tournament Bridge

Winners in the regular weekly bridge tournaments held last week at the Dartmouth Bridge Club are announced.

Thursday afternoon, June 4, in the North-South direction Helen Linehan and Rae Blumberg tied Lee Rodman and Dory Leviss for first and second places; Millicent Belinkoff and Bertye Goldstein were third; Ruth Musser and Dennis Brienzo, fourth.

Antiques- Heritage Plantation

The third Cape Cod Antique Dealers Association Antiques Show and Sale will be presented Sunday, June 21, outdoors from 10:00 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the award-winning grounds at Heritage Plantation of Sandwich. The admission price will admit visitors to the Antiques Show, the 76 acres of gardens and trails and all museum buildings featuring four special 1981 exhibits.

Sponsored by the Cape Cod Antique Dealers' Association, it features 52 exhibits. Food will be available on the grounds near the antique exhibitors just north and east of the Plantation's windmill. Fern Eldridge of Grain Mill Antiques in Falmouth, who was named Capd Cod Dealer of the Year in 1980 by the Association, is the Chairman of this outstanding event. Dave Olsen of the Chipman House in East Sandwich presides over the nearly 100-member association. The participating dealers in the show will again feature a wide and important range of furniture and artifacts representing Americana.
